

English I Honors Summer Assignment

English I Honors Summer Assignment

1. Read To Kill a Mockingbird by Harper Lee. Annotate the novel using the guidelines provided at the bottom of this page. Avoid going more than five pages without making an annotation.
2. Read Go Set a Watchman by Harper Lee. Annotate the novel using the guidelines provided at the bottom of this page. Avoid going more than five pages without making an annotation.
3. Write a formal, 5 paragraph essay in which you compare and contrast the two novels. Harper Lee only published two novels during her lifetime: Go Set a Watchman and To Kill a Mockingbird. Go Set a Watchman was written before To Kill a Mockingbird, but the story takes place after the events of To Kill a Mockingbird have concluded. For this reason, there are many similarities and differences between the two, causing Go Set a Watchman to be both praised and criticized. Compare and contrast the two novels by discussing the differences in the portrayal of Atticus, the inconsistencies in the plot's events, and the different messages the works communicate.
4. Be prepared to turn in the annotated books as well as the essay on the day of Freshman Orientation.

Annotation Guide:

1. Underline or highlight key words, phrases, or sentences that are important to understanding the work.
2. Write questions or comments in the margins—your “conversation” with the text. Simply highlighting or underlining is not enough! You MUST write a comment in the margin for every item you highlight in the book.
3. Bracket important ideas or passages.
4. Use Vertical lines at the margin: to emphasize a statement already underlined or bracketed
5. Connect ideas with lines or arrows.
6. Use numbers in the margin: to indicate the sequence of points the author makes in developing a single argument.
7. Use a star, asterisk, or other doo-dad at the margin (use a consistent symbol): to be used sparingly, to emphasize the ten or twenty most important statements in the book.
8. Use ??? for sections or ideas you don't understand.
9. Circle words you don't know. Define them in the margins.
10. A check mark means “I understand”.
11. Use !!! when you come across something new, interesting, or surprising.
