FROM THE PRINCIPAL
BOB ROWE

Dear Alumni, Parents, and Friends of Covington Catholic High School,

We are filled with excitement as we begin the 2015-16 school year. A very visible sign of progress at CCH will be when 173 freshmen enter our front doors, as the largest class since 1972. Our total enrollment will exceed 600 for the first time in forty years (up 25% from 485 just five years ago) and Covington Catholic will become the largest high school in the Diocese of Covington.

The responsibility of educating 600+ young men spiritually, academically, physically and socially is taken very seriously, and faithfully, at CovCath. I believe our enrollment growth reflects that in many ways. Faculty and staff had the vision and commitment to adapt and become more innovative in all areas of our curriculum. Our coaches/moderators have challenged our students to push themselves to not accept mediocrity or complacency. Our Community Service Program has grown and is leading the way in providing service to others. Our School Board and committee members generously give their time and talents to make sure that we sustainably deliver our mission by advising our administration within a comprehensive strategic framework. Our parents trust us as educators to provide their sons with a top quality and holistic education. As an administration, we are blessed to be surrounded by so many special individuals (Faculty, Staff, Alumni, Parents, Volunteers) who are student-centered and so committed to the success of CCH.

We are ready to continue a new chapter here at CCH, which includes some new faces on our Staff and School Board. I wish to comment on several transitions.

Thank you to Mr. Mike Guidugli for serving as our Athletic Director for the last 28 years and to Sue Finke for her 11 years of service as our Advancement Director. Both Mike and Sue sacrificed time from their families and handled their roles with calmness, integrity, dedication and professionalism. Both brought priceless insight and experience to our faculty/staff. More on their many achievements and accolades is featured later in this issue.

Also, I would be remiss without saying how sad it was to say goodbye to Mr. Dennis Griffin. Mr. Griffin and his family have been instrumental in cultivating the footprint of our campus over the last seven years. Mr. Griffin was a firm but fair man who always had the best interest of others at heart. We as a community are eternally grateful for his kindness, generosity and, most importantly, his friendship.

Please enjoy this edition of the JOURNAL as we share some of the ways that CovCath is the best high school opportunity in Northern Kentucky and Greater Cincinnati. As always, you and your families are in my prayers.

God’s blessings,
Bob Rowe
INTRODUCING...

AN UPDATED LOGO TO REPRESENT COVINGTON CATHOLIC AS WE MOVE TOWARD OUR 100TH ANNIVERSARY AND BEYOND.

A set of logos and a corresponding set of usage standards were developed over the past year with input from hundreds of CCH stakeholders including students, parents, alumni, faculty, board members, and branding professionals. We are proudly unveiling them as the new school year begins, and expect that they will quickly become the instantly recognized and eminently respected images of CovCath. Wear them proudly, Colonels!

These logo elements are the basis for many creative combinations that will be used across the full array of school applications – correspondence, signage, sport uniforms, spirit items, you name it!
OUR BRAND

As the only all-male Catholic school within the Diocese of Covington, the mission of Covington Catholic is to embrace the Gospel message of Jesus Christ in order to educate young men spiritually, academically, physically, and socially. CCH is in its 91st year of educating young men and has graduated over 8,000 alumni.

CovCath can point to many examples of outstanding success in fulfilling that mission, from the breadth and depth of our community service program, to top tier academic results, to consistent regional/statewide success for athletic programs, to a culture of brotherhood that also supports individual growth. With faith at the center of our collective purpose, we value the role that every part of our community plays in achieving this success – students and their families, committed and dedicated staff/faculty, alumni, donors and the community at large.

Based on this reflection of Covington Catholic, informed by history as well as surveys and focus groups from a current perspective, key characteristics of the CovCath brand that are represented in these logos include:

• CATHOLIC IDENTITY AND TRADITION: The cross is at the center of our mission. It is same cross as the one included at the center of the school seal, which will be carried forward as a key part of the overall brand representation.

• TRADITION IS THE FOUNDATION FOR THE FUTURE: We reflect that foundation, with a modern “update.” Our logos and fonts have a classic, “clean” and collegiate feel.

• ALL MALE: The logos are masculine, strong and bold, with a distinctness that reflects and connects an individual spirit to the community.

• UNITY AND EXCELLENCE: By driving consistency with a unified and seamless collection of logos, we demonstrate honor and respect for the excellence of our school’s brand.

• COLORS: The primary colors are deep royal blue and white, with (limited) use of a lighter blue and a silvery grey as accent colors. Different shades of blue have historically symbolized Mary.
SCHOOL NEWS highlights the activities and accomplishments of our current students and staff. In between issues, be sure to check CovCath.org or our Facebook page for the most up-to-date news.

2015 BACCALAUREATE MASS AND AWARDS LUNCHEON
2015 GRADS RECOGNIZED FOR SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS

Members of the Class of 2015 were recognized at an academic scholarship signing event in May for accepting scholarships worth a minimum of half of tuition value to the following colleges and universities:

- Tyler Micek: Arizona State University
- Adam Ruwe: Northern Kentucky University
- Steven Faris: Northern Kentucky University
- Adrian Neff: Ohio State University
- Patrick Ballow: Ohio University
- Austin Picone: Thomas More College
- Robert Urbina: Thomas More College
- Miso Rokvic: University of Cincinnati
- Joseph Pieper: University of Dayton
- Grant Romes: University of Louisville
- Kurtis Stegman: University of Louisville
- Mark Ryan: University of Louisville
- Todd Sheets, Jr.: University of Louisville
- Aaron Buckley: University of Kentucky
- Christian VanDusen: University of Kentucky
- Samuel Kathman: University of Mississippi
- Caleb Summe: University of South Carolina

Representatives from the colleges awarding these scholarships were present to announce the awards and welcome the students to their respective schools.

GLOBAL SUMMER GAMES

Jake Fischer (a senior in 2015-16) attended the World Cup Kendama Championships in Hatsukaichi, Japan, in July and placed 7th overall from a pool of 260+. Kendama is a simple Japanese toy that Jake has mastered with complicated tricks. His travel expenses for the trip to Japan were paid by sponsor Kendama-Co, based out of Denver, Colorado, and Jake was interviewed on WLWT prior to his departure (see link below).

SENIOR TRADITION

Among the many traditions that define CovCath and, in particular, the senior class, is Bike Day on one of the final days of the school year. Around 7:30 am, the 2015 seniors travelled down Dixie Highway and began rolling into the CovCath parking lot on all forms of wheeled transportation, from rollerblades to three-wheelers. Roll on, Colonels!

LOCAL SUMMER SERVICE

Over 20 CovCath students volunteered as classroom and field trip assistants with a new Covington Partners Out-of-School Time summer initiative. Most volunteer commitments were for a week of half days, but some did multiple weeks. It was a great way for Colonels to help in our home community while providing them with important leadership service to the youth in this new enrichment program.
TEACHER OF THE YEAR
Excerpted from Covington Catholic Times article by Jake Brueggeman.

The 2014-15 Teacher of the Year, chosen by the seniors, was Mr. Al Hertsenberg. Congratulations to Coach Herts for winning this award yet again. The award signifies a teacher’s devotion and commitment to bettering students both spiritually and academically.

Mr. Hertsenberg celebrated his 25th year of teaching at CovCath this year.

ANOTHER CCH STUDENT SCORES 36 ON ACT

Another CCH student earned the top composite score of 36 on the ACT college admission and placement exam. Lucas Timmerman, now a senior, achieved the mark this past spring. He is the son of Jerry and Jennifer Timmerman of Florence, KY, and a member of Immaculate Heart of Mary parish.

Nationally, while the actual number of students earning a composite score of 36 varies from year to year, on average, less than one-tenth of 1 percent of students who take the ACT earn the top score. Among test takers in the high school graduating class of 2014, only 1,407 of nearly 1.85 million students earned a composite score of 36.

While the achievement is significant and rare, Lucas was the third student at Covington Catholic to earn a composite score of 36 during the 2014-15 school year. 2015 Graduate Adrian Neff and 2015-16 Senior Logan Boyle also received a 36 on the ACT in the fall of 2014.

COLONEL OF THE YEAR
Excerpted from Covington Catholic Times article by Grant Guenther.

At the end of the year, the seniors were asked to vote for a Colonel brother who has exemplified many great qualities of CovCath including academics, attitude, and social and athletic involvement. This year, the winner was Samuel Kathman, also the President of the Student Senate. Sam certainly was a good choice, as he is a dual sport athlete, does lots of community service, and (as the Senate President) is the main representative of our student body.

COLONELS CONQUER EUROPE

Six students, one parent and two teachers embarked on a whirlwind tour of London, Paris, Florence and Rome early in June. From Beefeaters in London, the Eiffel Tower in Paris, Michelangelo’s David in Florence, to the Colosseum in Rome, they saw it all. They ate loads of pizza and pasta, fish and chips and crepes. Highlights of the trip included riding the London Eye, climbing Sacré-Cœur in Montmartre, and attending a general audience with Pope Francis. They also enjoyed LOTS of gelato - they never passed a gelato shop without stopping in for more!

Next year’s trip, open to all CCH students, alumni, and families, is an eight-day tour of Germany and the Alps. Contact Mrs. Julie Stengle for details.
STUDENTS ACCEPTED TO 2015 KENTUCKY GSP, GSA, AND GSE

Fourteen Covington Catholic High School students were accepted to the 2015 Kentucky Governor’s Scholars Program (GSP), Governor’s School for the Arts (GSA) and Kentucky Governor’s School for Entrepreneurs (GSE).

For GSP, students were evaluated in areas of service, extracurricular activities, academics, and writing submissions against top level students from all around Kentucky. They participated in the 5-week residential program at three different Kentucky college campuses over the summer.

From the GSP website: “The Governor’s Scholars Program strives to enhance Kentucky’s next generation of civic and economic leaders. Established in 1983, the program provides academic and personal growth through the balance of a strong liberal arts program with a full co-curricular and residential life experience.”

From the GSA website: “Every summer for the past twenty-eight years, GSA and our faculty of professional artist/educators have guided over two hundred of Kentucky’s finest young artists through three weeks of incredibly intense (and incredibly fun) arts instruction. GSA auditions high school sophomores and juniors in nine different arts disciplines: Architecture+Design, Creative Writing, Dance, Drama, Instrumental Music, Musical Theatre, New Media, Visual Art and Vocal Music. For three solid weeks, the students live, breathe, eat and sleep the arts. It’s a thrilling, often life-changing experience, as they meet new friends, explore their creativity, and discover new things about who they are and who they can be in the future.”

From the GSE website: “GSE is a unique entrepreneurship program which places a strong emphasis on innovation and design as elements of creating a sustainable business model. It was founded three years ago by the Kentucky Science and Technology Corporation with the support of Governor Beshear’s office to make it a third Governor’s School program, thereby reaching teens across the state. GSE teaches students critical life and work skills of problem-solving, teamwork and iteration in an environment where it is safe to fail. Working in small business teams, students design and build a product prototype and learn the components of a business model. Emphasis is on the triple bottom line – focusing not only on profit but also on people and the planet. On the last day teams give oral business pitch presentations to a panel of business owners, investors and professionals.”

ALEX TORRES ACHIEVES EAGLE SCOUT

Alex Torres, now a senior, achieved the prestigious rank of Eagle Scout and was recognized at a Court of Honor ceremony on June 7 at St. Joseph Church, Crescent Springs. He is the 75th Scout for Troop 717 that has earned this rank. Many of Alex’s fellow scouts, adult leaders, family and friends attended the ceremony. His parents are Rafael and Amy Torres.
SERVICE

OUR LADY OF FATIMA VISITS CCH

Excerpted from Covington Catholic Times article by Jack Schrage

The Colonels gathered in the gym this spring for a rosary service honoring Our Lady of Fatima. We were blessed to have the Virgin Statue of Our Lady of Fatima in the center of our gym while we prayed. The statue was blessed by Blessed Pope Paul VI.

NICARAGUA MISSION TRIP

The 2015 Nicaragua Mission Trip included 31 CCH missionaries plus 4 students from St. Henry District High School. Together, they joined forces to “bring drink to the thirsty” with their work in Nicaragua.

MAGNIFIED GIVING CLUB GRANT

The CCH Magnified Giving Club chose the Building Blocks For Kids agency as the non-profit organization to receive this year’s grant in the amount of $1200. Junior Mitch MacKnight provided the club with a PowerPoint presentation on why his group believed Building Blocks For Kids should be the recipient of the grant.

The members of the Magnified Giving Club designate how the money will be used by the recipient agency. The club decided that they will join a group of the kids from the agency for a day of fun in August. Mitch will work with Dynette Clark of the agency to arrange the day.

This has been another successful year for the club. Ten students attended the Awards Banquet on May 6th at Covington Latin to present our check to our winning agency.

DAYS OF REFLECTION

Excerpted from Covington Catholic Times articles by Jake Brueggerman, Paul Huber and Austin Hussey

The Freshman Day of Reflection was a terrific day for the freshmen to ponder their first year at CCH and reflect on their lives. The most powerful part of the day was when seven seniors gave speeches about their personal lives and experiences at Covington Catholic. They gave advice to the freshmen and asked them to learn from their mistakes and successes. They led freshmen through small group discussions that reflected upon the talks.

The Sophomore Day of Reflection was led by Chandler Brooks. Six seniors gave talks on: family values and how decisions affect others; the importance of school and how it affects your future; the value of friendships and club involvement at school; social life and being yourself; and examples of how all these things have played out from one senior’s perspective.

The Junior Day of Reflection was led by CCH religion teacher Mr. Rich Andolina. The focus was on chastity. It was very eye-opening as the juniors listened with respect and learned about the seriousness of the topic. The day was successful, and Coach A led an awesome Day of Reflection.

WYOMING RETREAT

Seventy-two members of the Class of 2017 travelled to the beautiful lands of northwest Wyoming for the annual CovCath sophomore retreat. Two separate groups of Colonels and their adult leaders made the trip, one in early June and the second in July. Besides taking in the majestic scenery of Yellowstone and the Grand Teton, hiking mountain upon mountain, and enjoying events like horseback riding and a rodeo, the guys became closer with God and with each other through the retreat activities.

One of the adult leaders on the trip, Mr. David Gronotte, Jr. (Class of 1993), shared the following from his experience:

“I had the privilege of being a leader on the Covington Catholic Wyoming Retreat, and I wanted to send a quick note with some of my thoughts. First of all, I feel completely blessed that I had the opportunity to participate in this amazing experience for myself, the other adult leaders, and the incredible group of students that made the journey out West. The students behaved very well, and certainly represented the school and our community in the most positive way possible. All of the adult leaders received numerous compliments as we made our adventure throughout the week. The staff at the ranch repeatedly made comments such as, ‘I wish all of our visitors would behave like the Covington Catholic boys,’ and ‘I am so impressed by their manners, and how helpful and kind they are to each other.’ The flight attendants on each of our four flights also commented on how impressed they were with these young men, particularly because they were so polite and kind. The airport staff approached me to let me know that all of our students were so wonderful, using their manners and being polite to everyone around them. They told me they wished all of their customers would behave like our young men did. When we went into the town of Dubois, WY, all the shop owners and workers made comments about how much they enjoyed having the Covington Catholic students there. They told me that they loved how well-behaved they always are. When we went to the Jackson Hole Rodeo, not only did the announcer love the fact that the guys would stand and do their cheers to get the crowd excited, but all the guests at the rodeo enjoyed them. Several people came up to talk with the students or one of the adult leaders to say how much they liked their spirit, and that they were respectful of the event and very polite. These young men also made a tremendous impression on everyone when we attended Mass at Our Lady of the Mountains in Jackson Hole. The priest, deacon and all the congregation were so happy to see us walk into Mass, and they commented to the adult leaders later how impressed they were with our students and they loved that all the students actively participated in the Mass. As you can imagine, these few examples made me feel so proud to be a part of something that is doing so many positive things. I loved every minute of our adventures, from the hikes to horseback riding to the rodeo to trips into town, but the lifelong impact the retreat had on these guys and me is the greatest part of this experience. Coach Hertsenberg and Mr. Lubbers did an amazing job leading these guys, and were great examples of how to be Christian men. Their leadership and excellent devotion to these students was inspiring to me, and also made me especially excited since I know that my two sons who will be attending CCH in the near future will get to benefit from their influence and example.’

SPECIAL OLYMPICS RECOGNITION AWARD

Mr. William (“Bill”) Snyder was chosen as the recipient of the 2015 Dave Hester Special Recognition Award from the Special Olympics of Northern Kentucky.

Mr. John Foppe, Special Olympics of NKY Basketball Coordinator, and Ms. Jan Castle, Special Olympics of NKY Awards Coordinator, surprised Mr. Snyder with the presentation of the award at an all-school assembly at Covington Catholic on March 27th. Mr. Snyder was recognized for his fifteen years of leadership of the CCH Community Service Program. The program, founded by Mr. Snyder in 2000, has enabled CovCath students to serve Special Olympics, as well as many other agencies and programs in the community.

Mr. Snyder began teaching at CCH in 2001 after 30 years in the business world during which time he was a partner in two businesses and served on the boards of two banks and many community organizations including the Ft. Wright City Council. Prior to completing his undergraduate degree, Mr. Snyder attended seminary for two years and served four years of active duty in the Navy. Mr. Snyder was chosen Diocesan High School Religion Teacher of the Year for 2013 and was a Hixson Corporation Teacher of the Year finalist in 2012. Mr. Snyder is a Covington Catholic alumnus (Class of 1964) and a graduate of Xavier University (1987). He teaches Religion and Economics, is the Campus Minister, and also serves as the moderator of the popular Fishing Club at CovCath.
ART STUDENTS VISIT CHICAGO

Excerpted from Covington Catholic Times article by Ben Kindt

Some of the senior art students and teacher Mr. Tim Haders traveled to Chicago for a weekend in May. While there, they went to a Cubs game, visited the NFL Draft tents, ate at Ed Debevic’s Restaurant, visited many art museums, and played Frisbee in the park. Senior Steven Faris said, “Walking through the city with my friends created a great memory I will never forget.”

CHAMBER CHOIR – NEW CD!

The CCH Chamber Choir continues their run of producing sought-after CDs with a fifth release, planned for the fall of 2015. It will be a Christmas album, including both sacred and secular songs, and will feature all three winning entries from the 2014 Q102 Christmas Choir competition. It will also feature alumni vocalists as well as musicians Brett Micek, Will Huber and John Frisch. The past success of CCH Chamber Choir CDs has led Joseph-Beth Booksellers to indicate interest in carrying the 2015 Christmas album in their stores. Watch for more news on its availability this fall!

CCH ART TEACHER’S FAMILY RECEIVES COLONELS’ SUPPORT

Covington Catholic art teacher Mr. Tim Haders has given much to his students over his 30+ year career at CCH. This spring, former student Zach Holbrook (Class of 1995), led an effort for the Colonel community to give back to Mr. Haders’ family.

Mr. Haders’ wife, Kathy, was recently diagnosed with multiple sclerosis. To help the Haders with the costs of home accommodations for her special needs, Zach launched a funding campaign that raised over $61,000 from 566 donors in two months’ time. One supporter posted the following on the funding site page:

“Zach, this is so awesome! What a testament to the men and women that have taught all of you guys through the years at CCH, and of course, to Tim Haders. I am sure he is humble as always about this gesture, but what an honor for so many people to step up to this challenge. I for one am so proud of the men that they continue to turn out of this school and will always be a loyal fan and contributor.”
PROJECT 38 FOUND SUCCESS
Excerpted from Covington Catholic Times article by Cooper Theobald

Covington Catholic students presented a movie trailer they produced for Project 38 in Cincinnati this spring. Project 38 was an event where schools from all over the area each chose a unique way to celebrate one of Shakespeare’s 38 plays.

CovCath decided to make a movie trailer on the play Timon of Athens, as well as a poster and costume design sketches. Led by Mrs. Diane Ruth and Miss Lauren Garrett, CovCath students Kurt Stegman, Drew Hummel, Mason Kinsella, Michael Pikar, Julian Chapman,

“RACING TO EXCELLENCE” AWARDS

Covington Catholic students earned 17 of the 21 total awards in the Racing To Excellence Art Program, a statewide design contest sponsored by the Kentucky Speedway.

The students recognized included: Anthony Bosch, Trevor Bosley, Jared Clark, Sean Brownfield, Killian Deaton, Christian Good, Chris Holthaus, Matt Kloska, Skyler Koch, Griffin Lamb, Matthias Mando, Daniel Mounir, Alec Simon, Adam Stegman, Tyler Urbina, Mason Webster, and Anthony Zang.

Austin Wilson and Brent Imhoff were winners in the Speedway’s Racing To Excellence STEM Essay Contest. They were invited to be honorary pit crew members at the Speedway in July.

STUDENTS’ DESIGNS CHOSEN

Covington Catholic graphic design instructor Craig Cleveland established a relationship with Topps (makers of the famous Topps baseball cards) and local company Tung Toos (a kids’ candy-flavored temporary tattoo for the tongue), and enabled his design students the very rare opportunity to submit their designs for consideration, and to be judged by executives at both companies. Among 150 submissions overall, nine students’ work was selected by Topps, Inc. to be published and included in limited-edition packages of Topps’ BABY BOTTLE POPS candy.

This will be the second collection of CCH student work that will be featured in the popular candy brand. Previously in 2014, CovCath student designs were selected and produced and can be found in Target and WalMart stores in select packages of Topps’ BABY BOTTLE POPS CANDY all over the world. Photos of the winning designs from 2014 can be viewed on Mr. Cleveland’s CCH DESIGN website: www.CovCathDESIGN.org (then click on the NEWS button).

The students whose designs were selected this previous school year included: Tanner Chadwick, Kyle Cosby, Clay Crowe (with a design element produced by Jared Clark), Parker Duell, Daniel Mounir, Ben Pohlabeln, Luke Shields, Adam Stegman, and CJ Voorhees.

DESIGN STUDENTS VISIT DAAP

The CCH Design Students took a field trip in April to UC’s prestigious DAAP (Design, Architecture, Art and Planning) program. There, they viewed the DAAP WORKS Senior exhibition which covered Architecture, Urban Planning, Automotive Design, Graphic Design, App Development, Traditional Art, and Product Design. DAAP’s product design/industrial design program is rated #1 in the nation. They also met up with CovCath alumnus Sam Williamson (2013), who is currently enrolled in the DAAP architecture program.
TENNIS

The tennis team experienced many firsts this season: won the NKAC Division I championship; finished undefeated in Northern Kentucky; won the 17th Region Title (14th consecutive); won the Sectional Championship for the first time; and was State Runner-Up for the second time. The thrill of these great accomplishments was only surpassed by the experience to host on our very own, on-campus, tennis complex. The team swept the Regional singles and doubles semi-finals on our own courts in front of a cheering crowd that was the talk of the tennis teams in the state. Austin Hussey won the singles title for his fourth year over Colonel freshman Max Cook. Anthony Bosch and Blake Heimbrock fought hard to get by teammates Jake and Jared Haught to win the doubles title in a super-tie-break final. Grant Woodcock also played doubles on the Sectional championship team.

The team played in front of over three hundred spectators and fans in the Sectional Tournament match against Henry Clay on our very own courts. Coaches Eilerman (’91) and Hertsenberg and all of the players truly appreciate the support from the Colonel faithful during this historic season.

NEW TENNIS COMPLEX

The 2015 track and field Colonels were once again ranked among the top teams in Kentucky. While the team fell short of its ultimate goal of a state championship, the season included many successes. Over the course of the season, the team won or placed runner-up in half of the varsity meets. With a challenging schedule that included multiple trips to Ohio and Louisville, the Colonels accumulated an impressive medal count and broke numerous records.

During the indoor season, Jake Erpenbeck set new school records in the 55 meter and 60 meter dash, running 6.59 and 7.09 seconds, respectively. In the outdoor season, Jake bettered his 100 meter record, lowering it to an impressive 10.80 at the state track meet (which earned him second place). At the regional meet, the 4x200 record was shattered by the team of Logan McDowell, Jake Erpenbeck, Adam Wagner, and Lee McClure, running a 1:30.96. Later in the regional meet, the 4x100 record was broken by the relay team of McDowell, Erpenbeck, Henry Toebbe, and McClure, running an impressive 43.24.

The 2015 track and field team had a day of ups and downs, eventually finishing 5th. The 4x100 relay team won the state title in their event. Luke Foertsch also became a state champion in discus, throwing his personal best on the last throw of his career to also take the lead and the eventual win. It was an exciting season and with numerous contributors from this season returning, the Colonels look to be very strong again for the 2016 season.
BASEBALL
The baseball Colonels had another successful season, finishing with a 25-9 record.

The Colonels recorded their 29th consecutive 20-win season and reached the regional tournament for the 12th straight year.

Adam Ruwe was one of the most dominating pitchers in Northern Kentucky, finishing with an 8-1 record, a 1.61 ERA, and 62 strike outs in 69 innings. Brian Haughey was second on the team with 6 wins.

Offensively, the Colonels were led by seniors Nate Bailey (.349 average), Nico Pangallo (.386), and Noah Galvin (.375). Nico Pangallo broke a long-standing school record with 34 stolen bases. Juniors Nick Stegman (.440), and Ryan McGinnis (.387), led the Colonels in hitting.

Congratulations to our seniors who will be continuing their baseball careers into college: Nate Bailey (Otterbein); Noah Galvin (Thomas More); and Nico Pangallo (Union).

The JV Colonels finished the season 21-8 and defeated Conner to win the JV regional championship. The freshman Colonels finished 22-3 and beat Campbell County to win the freshman regional championship.

Finally, congratulations to head baseball coach and long-time biology teacher Mr. Bill Krumpelbeck on reaching his 900th win this season.

LACROSSE
The Lacrosse team, a club sport that continues to grow at CovCath, with over 40 Colonels on the team.
ATHLETIC DIRECTOR TRANSITION

As the 2015-16 school year approaches, Mr. Mike Guidugli has transitioned his leadership of the Covington Catholic High School Athletic Department to Mr. Tony Bacigalupo. In his 28 years as Athletic Director, Covington Catholic has won 10 state championships, 21 state runner-up titles, and 130 regional titles. During the 2014-15 school year, 66% of students participated in KHSAA-sanctioned sports programs at CCH. While he is stepping down as Athletic Director, he will remain as an Assistant Principal, Dean of Students, and Supervisor of Buildings and Grounds for Covington Catholic.

Mr. Guidugli began his career in the Diocese of Covington 45 years ago as a teacher at Bishop Brossart before starting as a full-time English teacher at Covington Catholic in 1985. In 1987, he became Athletic Director and continued to teach part-time until 1992 when he assumed the Assistant Principal position while continuing in his role as Athletic Director. He has also long-served as the Dean of Students and the Buildings and Grounds Supervisor. In addition to his administrative duties he has been a head coach in Track and Field, Swimming and Diving, and an assistant coach in Cross Country. He received a BA in Education and Secondary Administration and a Masters of Education from Xavier University in 1975.

Mr. Tony Bacigalupo will assume the Athletic Director role from Mr. Guidugli. Mr. Bacigalupo joined the CovCath faculty in the fall of 2013 after a 9-year career in sales for Total Quality Logistics. He has been Assistant Varsity Basketball Coach for the Colonels for four seasons. With 14 years of coaching overall, he received the NKAC Coach of the Year award in 2007. He has BA degrees in Business Administration and Economics and an AA in Accountancy from Thomas More College (2004) and a Masters of Art – Teaching from the University of the Cumberlands (2013).

Covington Catholic Principal Mr. Bob Rowe says of the transition, “Mike Guidugli is part of the fabric of CovCath. He has consistently led our athletic programs to prominence, while exhibiting strong values of faith and sportsmanship both on and off the field. His tenure, impact and results across our athletic programs are unsurpassed. Mike has cultivated a reputation of integrity and respect with the KHSAA and his peers. He has built a proud tradition and foundation that Tony Bacigalupo will very ably assume. We are so proud of our past, and equally excited about our future. Go Colonels!”

Previously in the 2014-15 school year, additional Covington Catholic student-athletes committed to various schools: Sam Murrer committed to Miami of Ohio (Football), Jacob Roth committed to Centre College (Football), Austin Hussey committed to the University of Kentucky (Tennis) and Paul Huber committed to the University of Cincinnati (Golf).
EDUCATING COLONELS...TODAY, TOMORROW, and for a LIFETIME

Dear Alumni and Colonel Community,

Since 1925, Covington Catholic High School has endeavored to educate young men spiritually, academically, physically, and socially. We believe every young man who desires a Covington Catholic education should have the opportunity. With this philosophy, the school has educated over 8,000 young men, providing each with an excellent education and the community with educated and responsible citizens. Since its founding, Covington Catholic has built a reputation of excellence that is still its standard today.

To achieve our goal that every young man who desires a Covington Catholic education should have the opportunity, the school offers tuition assistance, work study program, and academic awards. In addition, as future technology needs increase and enrollment expands, CovCath will rise to the challenge of meeting these requirements. But, we need your help. These programs are funded through donations to Annual Appeal, General Endowment, Named Endowments, and Planned Giving, via a variety of methods that benefit TODAY, TOMORROW, and FOR A LIFETIME.

TODAY. You can give TODAY by contributing to the Annual Appeal. The Annual Appeal kicks off at the beginning of the school year and funds the Tuition Assistance Program at CovCath. You can write a check, give electronically, or spread your donation out over 12 months by giving through Recurring Gifts. No matter which method you use to make your gift, your donations are put to immediate good use. As one of our recent graduates, Joe Marino (Class of 2015), said about his graduation, “I did not do this alone. This school is a gift.”

TOMORROW. You can give to make sure that CovCath’s mission will continue TOMORROW. Consider setting up a Named Endowment. An Endowment allows the school to use the interest earned from your donation. The principal from your donation is never touched, thus allowing the gift to continue its impact into the future.

FOR A LIFETIME. Consider including CovCath in your Planned Giving. It offers the opportunity to make a LIFETIME contribution and establish a personal legacy while also receiving tax and other financial benefits. There are many options that can be matched to your personal financial objectives and situation, including some with income payments back to the donor and also a charitable deduction. All of these gifts help to ensure a secure future for Covington Catholic.

While these tools are critical to funding ongoing operational needs, capital campaigns raise funds for longer-term capital improvements to our facilities and structure. Gifts to a capital campaign may take a similar form - cash, other assets, endowments, planned giving, etc. - but they are applied to a defined set of improvements.

You have the opportunity to give the gift of a CovCath education to current and future students. Your CovCath legacy can begin today, continue tomorrow, and last for a lifetime.

Many blessings,

Dr. Laura Sage
Laura J. Sage, Ed.D.
Director of Advancement
GIVING TODAY – ANNUAL APPEAL

The Annual Appeal provides tuition assistance to our students and is distributed in the year of the contribution. These gifts are critical in enabling CovCath to provide a holistic educational experience to many current students. Joe Marino (Class of 2015) provided this perspective on what his CovCath experience, enabled by tuition assistance funded by Annual Appeal contributions, meant to him:

While writing numerous applications to colleges and scholarships, I was asked to compile lists of my accomplishments and activities. While it can be difficult to try to summarize four years into pieces of paper, one thought continued to come to mind – I did not do this alone.

I was compelled to sit down and write to thank you for helping me remain at Covington Catholic through the financial aid program.

The work study program not only helped me, but many of my friends and teammates. I thank the Covington Catholic community and benefactors for providing this opportunity. This school is a gift.

In reviewing my senior year, I would like to let the family that awarded me with the scholarship know that it is because of them that I was able to continue on a path of academics, athletics and service. I did not want to let them down or abuse the gift, and worked diligently to honor their sacrifice. I hope that I will have the opportunity to thank them.

Lastly, I would like to share that I have been accepted into the Honors Program at the University of Louisville, where I will study Chemical Engineering at the JB Speed School of Engineering. I can see that my future is wide open and in my hands. Thank you again for having such a positive impact on my life, and allowing me to focus on my studies, sports, and making a difference in my community.

Joseph Anthony Marino III

The Annual Appeal campaign kicks off in September with a mailing that will tell you more and request your support. Donations can be made at any time throughout the year in any amount. All donors to the Annual Appeal are recognized in the JOURNAL at the end of the year (see page 25 in this issue for the results of the 2014-15 campaign).
GIVING TOMORROW – ENDOWMENTS

Endowments provide needed future educational resources for Colonels. The current needs for tuition assistance are double the amount raised through our Annual Appeal and existing Endowments, and these needs continue to increase each year.

Endowments provide you, the donor, with an opportunity to make a lasting contribution to students’ educational needs and establish a personal enduring legacy.

You can contribute to the General Endowment or set up a Named Endowment with a (minimum) $10,000 contribution. If desired, donations can be made over a period of up to five years, culminating in the establishment of a Named Endowment honoring your family or a loved one. Examples of these types of gifts are shared below.

JOE & GINNIE SCHMIDT SCHOLARSHIP ENDOWMENT
“We established an endowment at both CovCath and Notre Dame Academy because we liked the idea of endowed scholarships that continue to aid students with financial need. We, as well as our children, attended either CovCath or NDA. This was a great way to help future students and carry on the Catholic education tradition.”
Ginnie & Joe Schmidt (CCH Class of 1961)

GREG KELLER SCHOLARSHIP ENDOWMENT
“I established an endowment to honor my longtime friend and fellow alum, Greg Keller. Greg was a CovCath honor student and athlete. He went on to earn three college degrees. Greg passed away in August of 2000 after a three year battle with Hodgkin’s disease.

I felt the best way to honor his life was to establish an endowment in his name that would benefit CovCath’s new STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering and Math) program. In my opinion, the STEM program is the most important discipline (aside from religion) that the school has ever sponsored. This program expands the career horizons of every young man in the program. I hope this endowment will help draw publicity about the program, garnering it more financial support, but also attracting bright students from around the area.

CLASS OF 1949 SCHOLARSHIP ENDOWMENT
“I was happy to contribute to the Class of ’49 Endowment, along with my fellow classmates. I feel strongly that the success I have had in life, both spiritually and financially, has been due to the education I received at Covington Catholic.”
George Brinkman (CCH Class of 1949)

Note: Class of ’49 has raised a total of $100,000 for the Class of 1949 Scholarship Fund since it was established in June of 2014. It was started anonymously by a 1949 alum who challenged his fellow classmates to raise $75,000. Once the Class of 1949 reached the $75,000 goal, then they received a $25,000 challenge grant from another anonymous donor. They accomplished their goal in June of 2015.
I recently revisited my estate planning documents and gave serious thought to how my donations could help the largest number of people and provide a long-term benefit, not just a short-term bandage. I came to two important realizations. One being I was truly blessed with great parents who provided the foundation of love, morality and guidance that forged the person I am; the second being the realization the most important foundational experience I had, other than my parents, was my Catholic education. Covington Catholic has positively impacted generations of families, and continues to do so, year after year, opening a window to the world of possibilities for those who attend. I realized this is where young men will be helped by my donation, and that my gift will be used judiciously and administered with integrity. I decided to make Covington Catholic a significant beneficiary in my Estate’s final distribution and established an Endowed Scholarship to be forward-funded at my passing.

There is a tremendous sense of gratification received from contributing to the education of these young men. I urge you to consider Covington Catholic in your Charitable Giving and Planning. Please do what you can, you’ll be glad you did. All of us together can make a big difference!

The following provides personal perspective from David C. Diedrich (Class of 1970) on how planned giving provided him a way to impact in a significant and long-lasting way:

REMEMBERING DENNIS GRIFFIN (1942-2015)

Mr. Dennis B. Griffin entered into eternal life peacefully in April, 2015. Throughout his life, he humbly established a broad and deep legacy as a loving family man, innovative entrepreneur and business leader, community visionary, and extremely generous philanthropist. By all accounts, he saw his gifts of time, talent and treasure as ways to enable other people and organizations to achieve their objectives. Covington Catholic High School has been the very grateful recipient of Mr. Griffin’s and his family’s generosity in countless ways, including the acquisition of land adjacent to the CovCath campus. That purchase set the stage for other enhancements and expansions now underway that support the delivery of our Mission into the future. Mr. Griffin and his wife, Joyce, were honored as the 2010 Northern Kentuckians of the Year. He will be dearly missed by all who knew him.

WILLIAMS FUND SCHOLARSHIP AWARDED

Todd A. Sheets, Jr., a 2015 graduate of Covington Catholic High School, was the recipient of the $5,000 Williams Fund College Scholarship awarded by the Kenny and Brian Williams Fund. Ken Williams, Sr., who is on the board of directors for the fund named after his sons, and David Thiel, Jr., also a member of the fund’s board of directors and a 1986 Covington Catholic graduate and classmate of Ken Williams, Jr. (“Kenny”), presented Todd with the award.

The Kenny and Brian Williams Fund was founded by David Thiel and six other friends of the Williams brothers as a way to honor them after their tragic deaths. Kenny died in 1994 after falling from a Cincinnati skyscraper. Brian died in the September 11, 2001 terrorist attacks on the World Trade Center. The brothers are Covington Catholic alumni who were known for their spirit, athleticism, academic excellence and zeal for life.

Todd Sheets is the son of Lynda K. Sheets of Florence and the late Todd A. Sheets, Sr. Todd will attend the University of Louisville to study business. At Covington Catholic, he was a member of the swim team (and recipient of the “Corbett Award” for leadership and commitment), the track and field team, the intramural bowling league, many clubs, and earned varsity letters for 60+ community service hours all four years of high school.

PFETZER MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP AWARDED

Steven Faris, a 2015 graduate of Covington Catholic High School, was the recipient of the $1,000 Jeffrey A. Pfetzer Memorial Scholarship. Mr. Michael Cayse presented Steven with the award at the school’s Baccalaureate Luncheon on May 19, 2015.

The Pfetzer Memorial Scholarship was founded in 2004 in memory of Jeffrey Pfetzer (CCH Class of 2001). Jeffrey died from a tragic fall in 2002 at the University of Kentucky where he completed his freshman year of college. His family and friends established this scholarship fund as a way to recognize a CCH student who embodies the qualities and character of Jeffrey.

Steven Faris attended St. Agnes School previous to CCH and is the son of Travis and Michelle Faris. Steven will attend Northern Kentucky University, where he also received the Kentucky Governor’s Scholarship. He was selected for the Kentucky Governor’s School for the Arts in 2014. At Covington Catholic High School, he was a member of the Art Club and Magnified Giving Club and earned a CCH varsity letter for community service.
2015 NORTHERN KENTUCKIAN OF THE YEAR

Earlier this year, Andrew J. “Andy” VonLehman (CCH Class of 1971) was named the 2015 Northern Kentuckian of the Year. The recognition luncheon was held at the Northern Kentucky Convention Center and was attended by 500 friends and supporters of Mr. VonLehman and Covington Catholic, including the Most Reverend Roger J. Foys. Artwork by CCH students was displayed at a reception prior to the luncheon, and the CCH Chamber Choir performed during lunch. The Northern Kentuckian of the Year Award was established in 1996 to recognize individuals who have distinguished themselves as leaders dedicated to the economic and social well-being of the Northern Kentucky region. After another very successful year, the event has now raised over $1,000,000 for Covington Catholic High School’s tuition assistance program.

SUE FINKE RETIREMENT

Sue Finke has long committed herself to the benefit of CovCath as a volunteer, a parent, and, for the past 10+ years, as the Director of Advancement. Sue is now moving to another exciting phase of her life, being a daily caregiver to her grandchildren, and finding many other ways to enjoy her family. During her time as the Director of Advancement, Sue’s leadership has created value and opportunity for Covington Catholic. From her networks and her ability to tell the CovCath story, she has brought willing donors to fund many great assets and programs for our school. In the past couple of years, Sue has led the preliminary phases of our capital campaign, which is positively poised to deliver great additions and enhancements to our school. Notably and hopefully, these include the creation of the recently dedicated new tennis complex, renovation of the athletic field and stadium, the establishment of a new classroom wing for the new Science, Technology, Engineering and Math (STEM) program, and growth in our endowment to support teacher excellence and student scholarships/tuition support. Many thanks and best wishes to Sue!

THE ANNUAL APPEAL

Thank you for your support of the 2014-15 Annual Appeal. The Annual Appeal helps aid the young men in the Tuition Assistance and Work Study Program.

The dollars raised through the Annual Appeal can also help provide assistance with academic support to students such as the new STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering, and Math) Program, and increased maintenance of the school facilities. Your donation is put to good use and is a reflection of the great things happening at Covington Catholic.

Please continue your support in 2015-16 by visiting www.covcath.org/aa or by using the attached envelope.

LUKE MAILE IS CATCHER FOR DURHAM BULLS

Luke Maile (CCH Class of 2009) is the starting catcher for the Durham Bulls, the Tampa Bay Rays’ AAA affiliate.

As a player at CovCath, Luke set school records for batting average, on-base percentage, hits, walks, runs scored, runs batted in, doubles, and triples, and was named Kentucky’s Mr. Baseball in his senior year. At the University of Kentucky, he won the Southeastern Conference (SEC) Player of the Week Award twice, was an All-SEC Second Team member, and was a semifinalist for the Golden Spikes Award and the Dick Howser Trophy. He was drafted in 2012 by the Rays and was recently promoted to the AAA Bulls.

Luke was married in November, 2014, to Paige Archinal.
SLABAUGH WINS ENTREPRENEURSHIP CONTEST

Studer (Alex) Slabaugh (CCH Class of 2011), a Communication and Media Studies double major at Georgetown College, is part of a two-person team that won first place and has advanced from regional to the state finals in Idea State U, a nationally recognized Kentucky business plan and business model competition designed to encourage innovation and entrepreneurship on the college level. First place prize was $1,000.

The Georgetown duo’s business model is for a company called GridU which provides educational sports technology through Internet and mobile application. It is designed to help athletes who want to take that extra step in improving their game by educating users on personal training, nutrition, and safety, and what they have termed “gridology” or the study of the game of football. Future plans are to expand to other sports.

Brett Riedinger, donned his white coat as he enters the University of Louisville Medical School. Brett was recognized as both the University of Louisville Business School Marketing Student of the Year and the 2014-15 Rodney Williams, Jr. Interfraternity Council Man of the Year.

2014
Johnny Thiel received the Bellarmine University Lenihan Memorial Award for Campus and Community Service.

WESSELS WINS UC REAL ESTATE AWARD

Nick Wessels (CCH Class of 2013), was recently selected as the University of Cincinnati Real Estate 2015 Student of the Year.

Nick is a double major in Real Estate and Finance at UC. He is a Marvin P. Kolodzik Business Scholar, and a recipient of the 2014 and 2015 Real Estate Scholarship. He serves as an International Ambassador for the Lindner College of Business, and is the current co-founder and president of iCats International Mentoring Program within the college. He also serves as the External Vice President of his fraternity, Pi Kappa Alpha. Nick interned for Grandin Properties where he was doing leasing consultant work. He has also worked as a co-op Underwriting Analyst at Phillips Edison and Company.
HALPIN NAMED TO 2015 RIMINGTON TROPHY WATCH LIST

Excerpted from wkysports.com website:

Max Halpin (CCH Class of 2012), a center on the WKU Hilltopper’s football team, was named to the 2015 Spring Watch List for the Rimington Trophy, given annually to college football’s most outstanding center.

The Rimington Trophy is a member of the National College Football Awards Association (NCFAA), which encompasses the most prestigious awards in college football. The winner will be awarded in January, 2016.

Halpin is one of 50 centers and one of six snappers representing Conference USA on the Rimington Trophy Watch List. He started three games at center before an injury shortened his 2014 campaign. Despite playing in just three games, Halpin helped WKU produce two of the top three single-game yardage performances in school history.

As a redshirt freshman in 2013, Halpin played in all 12 games and started seven after entering the season as WKU’s No. 2 option. Behind a starting Halpin, WKU went 6-1 in 2013 as he anchored an offensive line that helped former All-American running back Antonio Andrews set a WKU single-season record for rushing yards (1,730). Quarterback Brandon Doughty also established a single-season passing yardage record (2,857) with Halpin under center in 2013 before shattering his own mark with 4,830 yards in 2014.

CALL TO ACTION: COLONEL “YOUNG ALUMNI”

Hi, this is Will Huber, CCH Class of 2012. I have only been away from CovCath for a couple of years, but was excited by the opportunity to come back this summer as an intern. I have been working to establish a Young Alumni Program focused on alums who have graduated since 2008.

The objective of a Young Alumni Program is to provide a network to truly leverage the power of being a CCH Colonel. A group of young alums will be meeting soon to discuss the specific types of unique events and activities we will create – whether social, spiritual, educational, professional, or a combination thereof. We all have experiences that we can share to help our CCH alumni brothers and continue the spirit that will not die.

Whether you are in Northern Kentucky, or somewhere else, I would love to hear from you. We will link you in no matter where you are! If you’d like to be part of our committee, or just want to be informed of our progress, email me at whuber@covcath.org or call the CCH Alumni office at (859) 448-2312.

Be sure to keep up with all the news from CovCath through our website CovCath.org, Facebook pages, Twitter @CovCathColonels and LinkedIn — Covington Catholic Alumni Network Group.

As we enter the 2015-16 school year, Covington Catholic’s student population will exceed 600 for the first time since 1972. We are working hard to ensure that this growth is well managed to deliver the positive outcomes it can bring.

Over the last 15 years, CovCath has experienced significant enrollment growth. This trend has led to the establishment of a planning and construction committee to envision future school and facility requirements to better meet the needs of our students. The outcomes include new and enhanced academic programs, such as the Science, Technology, Engineering and Math program (STEM), new facilities and an overall “Campus Master Plan,” all intended to support sustainable excellence in the pursuit of the CCH Mission. This progressive and disciplined attitude has carried over into greater spiritual experiences, academic and athletic achievements, and social growth and service opportunities for our students. We have celebrated results and anticipate continued positive growth in all components of our mission and believe they work synergistically to help develop well-rounded and accomplished young men.

I know that the administration is doing everything in its power to make Covington Catholic the best school in the tri-state. I believe that if everyone could see what I have seen over the past five years, all would be very surprised at just how much CovCath does with so little. However, the fact is that tuition revenues only cover approximately 75% of the cost to run the school. Every Catholic high school in the country relies on its alumni for annual and ongoing support. We greatly appreciate the donors who give to the Annual Appeal, but are hopeful that the number of people who give can be increased.

In my role as Director of Alumni Relations, I routinely hear variations of the following questions from alumni:
• When are WE going to get lights?
• Why can’t WE have facilities like theirs?

My first reaction when I hear these questions is a positive one in that WE is always part of the conversation. As alums, WE feel a strong connection to our school and WE envision ourselves as being part of the present and future successes and needs of our alma mater. That mindset is necessary for CovCath to continue to accomplish its mission of educating young men for generations to come and providing these future leaders with the necessary tools to make this mission possible.

My second thought is that WE as alums must continue to channel this mindset into action, thereby contributing our talents, our time, and our treasure to this mission of which WE are a vital component. During our last capital campaign that resulted in the completion of the academic building, WE as alums did not contribute during the silent or public phase to the degree hoped or, possibly, to our abilities. As WE continue with this present campaign, I challenge us to make to make a larger impact this time, one that is commensurate with our concern for our school.

Covington Catholic Alumni rank amongst the best when it comes to supporting causes and donating to non-profits. We are a very generous group of men. Alumni can play a much larger role in contributing to an institution that develops our young men into future community leaders and positive role models for generations to come.

WE are CCH Alumni and WE can impact the future of Covington Catholic in a positive way. WE can provide the lights, the facilities and the winning Spirit that will not die!

WE ARE COVCATH!
